Pipes Motorsports Group Closes Out Pro Motocross Season at Ironman Raceway

August 31, 2026 • By Chase Lennemann

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind. — August 30, 2026 — Pipes Motorsports Group's Twisted Tea Suzuki presented by Progressive Insurance wrapped up the 2026 Pro Motocross season this past weekend at Ironman Raceway in Crawfordsville, Indiana, with Colt Nichols finishing 19th overall in the final round of the championship.

Nichols entered the weekend looking to build momentum ahead of the upcoming SuperMotocross World Championship Playoffs. In the opening moto, a mechanical issue forced the No. 45 Suzuki rider to pull off the track with only a few laps remaining, resulting in a 38th-place finish.

The Pipes Motorsports Group crew quickly went to work between motos and was able to remedy the issue ahead of the second race.

Nichols responded with a much stronger start in Moto 2 and put together his best ride of the day. Showing improved pace throughout the moto, Nichols battled his way to a 16th-place finish, giving him 19th overall with 38-16 moto scores.

“Final round of the nationals at Ironman. The team worked well today getting Colt Nichols to 16th in moto two after a mechanical in moto one. Looking forward to the start of the playoffs in a few short weeks and getting back into stadiums where the team is most comfortable.”
— Dustin Pipes , Team Principal, Pipes Motorsports Group

“Kind of a little bit of a trying day at the last round. We got some stuff figured out a little bit better for moto two. In the first moto we had some bike problems with a mechanical issue and wasn’t able to finish that one. But thank you to the boys and the team, they got me ready to go for moto two. Was able to get a better start and ride a lot better than I have, so I was happy to end it that way. Still not where I want to be, but it was progress and I’ll take everything I can get.”
